THIRD-PARTY ACCESS GUIDE

In order to view your student’s grades, schedule, or financial information, your student needs to grant you third-party access. Discuss third-party access with your student, and follow the steps below.

1. Have your student access One.iu.edu
2. Search for “Set Up Parents or 3rd Party Users (Students)”
3. Follow the on-screen instructions

Note: Your student will assign a username and passphrase to you. Your student is the only person who can retrieve a new username and passphrase if lost.

3rd Party User Account: __________________________________________
3rd Party User Passphrase: ________________________________________
Weeks of Welcome

Weeks of Welcome (WOW) is a long-standing tradition at IUPUI. It is a campus-wide series of events designed to welcome students and the campus community to the new school year. The calendar of events spans the first two weeks of fall and spring semesters and includes fun, engaging ways for your student to meet new friends and create meaningful connections at IUPUI. Learn more at wow.iupui.edu.
Prepare to be WOWed

Encourage your student to start building community with fellow students by starting conversations in class, attending campus events, and getting involved in student organizations. Weeks of Welcome events are a great place to start.
Regatta

This IUPUI signature event brings together students, alumni, faculty, staff, families, and community members for a day of fun and friendly competition at one of Indianapolis’ most loved landmarks: the downtown canal. Festivities include crowning Regatta Royalty, a dog costume contest, service projects, live entertainment, and family-friendly activities. Event proceeds go toward scholarships for undergraduate students at IUPUI.

Paws’ Pantry & Closet

Founded in 2013, Paws’ Pantry is dedicated to helping relieve food insecurity throughout the IUPUI community. It is open three days a week and all students, faculty, and staff are welcome to shop twice per month. In 2018, Paws’ Closet opened and is dedicated to helping relieve students’ financial burdens related to purchasing clothes. Both programs aim to help our campus community meet basic needs in welcoming, friendly environments. Learn more at paws.iupui.edu.
Finding Community & Celebrating Culture

Cultural dinners have a rich history at IUPUI, and the various programs provide the campus community an opportunity to join together. Programs include the Harvey Milk Celebration Dinner, Cesar Chavez Celebration Dinner, Asian Heritage Celebration Dinner, and the Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. Celebration Dinner. Encourage your student to engage in these programs and celebrate culture with fellow Jaguars.
The Office of Veteran and Military Personnel strives to foster a smooth transition for military-connected students by providing the resources necessary for personal well-being, academic success, and career preparation. Many of the services offered are free to students. Encourage your student -- if they identify as military-connected -- to view all resources and learn more. Learn more at veterans.iupui.edu.
Semester Changes

We know there have been many updates regarding the 2020-21 academic year. To ensure you have the most up-to-date information, we are encouraging students and families to stay connected at fall2020.iu.edu. As a reminder, your student will not return to campus after the Thanksgiving break and will continue their courses remotely.
Campus Recreation

Equipping students to foster healthy lifestyles and success at IUPUI is what Campus Recreation is all about. A membership includes access to fitness facilities and many programs, from intramural and club sports to group fitness classes. Campus Recreation offers students access to the 10,000-square-foot Jaguar Campus Recreation facility in the Campus Center, the Campus Recreation Outdoor Facility, Natatorium pool, the Jungle gymnasium, National Institute for Fitness and Sport (NIFS), and more. Learn more at campusrec.iupui.edu.

IUPUI has 18 Division I athletic programs, and students can attend athletic events free of charge with their CrimsonCard. Be on the lookout for special events to cheer the Jaguars on to victory! Encourage your whole family to attend and sport your favorite IUPUI spirit wear. View schedules and learn more about IUPUI Jaguar Athletics at www.iupuijags.com.
Finding Their Spot

A new year always brings new opportunities, and that may ring true for your student. After a semester under their belt, your Jaguar might feel more confident and ready to dive into campus life a bit more. With 500+ student organizations on campus, there is a spot for them to learn, grow, gain new skills, and meet new people. Learn more at thespot.iupui.edu.
The IUPUI Annual International Festival allows students, staff, and faculty to explore international opportunities on campus and in the community. This campus tradition hosts organizations, food, and performances by dancers, musicians, and more from around the world. IUPUI students are encouraged to learn with global perspectives in mind. Engagement across cultures can expand the way your student sees the world and interacts with those around them. Learn more at international.iupui.edu.

Spring semester is the perfect time for your student to begin, or continue, healthy habits. Health and Wellness Promotion offers free health and wellness coaching to IUPUI students. The program helps students clarify values, learn how to put them into practice each day, and maintain healthy changes that will last a lifetime. Email hwpindy@iupui.edu to get started and put “Wellness Coaching” in the subject line. |

Jagathon

Jagathon is a student-led initiative on campus that raises money for Riley Hospital for Children. This year-long fundraiser comes to life each spring with a dance marathon. During this celebration, the IUPUI community comes together with one focus: For The Kids. With more than 1,300 participants in 2020, Jagathon raised $607,870.25 for Riley Hospital for Children. Learn more at jagathon.iupui.edu.
Focus on Wellness

Encouraging your student to keep their health and well-being a top priority with plenty of sleep, a healthy diet, appropriate exercise, responsible choices, and mental wellness check-ins. Refer your student to the many IUPUI wellness resources. Learn more at studentaffairs.iupui.edu.

families.iupui.edu
As the semester winds down, we celebrate the accomplishments of the IUPUI community with Jagapolooza. This campus tradition is an opportunity for students, faculty, and staff to relax before final examinations. Students will enjoy a variety of activities during this on-campus carnival. Encourage your student to end their first year on a high note with IUPUI’s annual Jagapolooza! Learn more at studentaffairs.iupui.edu.
Almost There!

The month of April can fly by at IUPUI, and this time of the academic year is key with final exams and graduation in sight. Encourage your student to remain focused on academics while also staying engaged in campus life. IUPUI has numerous and free academic mentoring resources that are available to your student, such as the Mathematics Assistance Center and the Bepko Learning Center. Learn more at mac.iupui.edu and blc.iupui.edu.
Commencement

Commencement is an important milestone for students and their support systems -- family, friends, faculty, and staff. At IUPUI, graduates and their guests have the choice to attend both the main university-wide commencement ceremony and the individual school recognition ceremony. Graduates join more than 200,000 IUPUI alumni. Learn more at commencement.iupui.edu.
Summer Days

Encourage your student to stay in touch with their IUPUI community, reconnect with old friends and family members, and reflect about their first year as a Jaguar. Check out the Sophomore Experience Programs to get a jump-start on successes to come in the next year! Learn more at sophomore.iupui.edu.

Summer in the City

Indianapolis is a vibrant city of opportunities for your student during the summer months. Your student may be taking classes at IUPUI, at home for an extended break, or involved in career networking throughout the city. Make use of the warm weather with a stroll around the downtown canal together, a visit to a local attraction, lunch at a new spot, or an Indy weekend getaway of city exploration! Allow your student to take the lead in showing you around.

RESOURCES FOR TRANSITION

Academic Advising and Support
Your student can find a tutor, get help writing a paper, polish their public speaking skills, and more at places like the Bepko Learning Center, the University Writing Center, the Speaker’s Lab, and the Mathematics Assistance Center. Once your Jaguar selects a major and is admitted to a degree-granting school, they will have access to their school’s academic advisors and career professionals, who specialize in their area of study.

uc.iupui.edu // acd.iupui.edu // uwc.iupui.edu

Find Your Spot
With more than 500 student organizations to choose from, your student has a variety of ways to get involved during their time at IUPUI. Teamwork, cooperation, and leadership are skills they can learn by getting involved on campus—and all are essential to have in order to lead a successful life. And you know what’s best of all? They’ll learn them while having fun and making friendships and memories that will last long after they leave IUPUI.

thespot.iupui.edu

Career and Professional Development
It’s never too early for your Jaguar to start planning for their career. We have resources designed to help them every step of the way. In their academic school, they’ll have access to career advisors who specialize in the fields they want to pursue. That’s where they’ll also find field-specific internship and networking opportunities.

Physical, Mental, & Emotional Health
When they’re juggling classes, homework, and all the other stresses that come with student life, it can be tough to find time to get to their doctor’s office. IUPUI Campus Health can fill in the gaps. We offer a variety of medical services, so they can get the care they need and stay well.

Taking care of their mental and emotional health is part of taking care of themselves. Counseling and Psychological Services is available to help your Jaguar find ways to manage their emotions and develop healthy coping mechanisms. We also offer free health and wellness coaching focused on the eight dimensions of wellness.

Advocacy & Support
We can help your student navigate through life’s ups and downs and make sure they have the support they need to succeed inside and outside of the classroom. Your student can find resources to meet their basic needs, utilize the on-campus food pantry and clothing closet, or meet with a member of the team for one-on-one advocacy and support.

paws.iupui.edu // helpmeroar.iupui.edu
IUPUI Parent and Family Programs is dedicated to serving as a one-stop shop for parents, families, and supporters of current students. We develop intentional programs, communications, partnerships, and resources that impact student success and connect families to the IUPUI community.

You are a key partner as a parent, family member, or supporter of an IUPUI student. We encourage you to be engaged in your Jaguar student’s experience on campus. Check out families.iupui.edu for additional resources and information about parent and family involvement at IUPUI.

Family Checklist: Going to college is a big transition for your entire family – not just your student. The Family Checklist is a tool to help your family successfully transition to IUPUI. Take time to review this checklist with your student at families.iupui.edu to ensure all college planning items are completed on time.

IUPUI Jaguar Family Association Facebook Page: Follow the Jaguar Family Association Facebook page to stay up to date with IUPUI news, important dates to remember, special family invitations, student opportunities, tips for supporting your Jaguar, and more!

IUPUI Jaguar Families Facebook Group: Become a member of the IUPUI Jaguar Families Facebook group to join the conversations among your fellow IUPUI families. Ask questions, get encouragement, and trade wisdom from one family member to the next.

E-Newsletter: The Jaguar Family Association is a bi-monthly e-newsletter to keep you updated on what is going on at IUPUI, tips for better supporting your student, calendar updates, special programs invitations, and much more! Join today at families.iupui.edu.
